On the SW pt. of lot 14, con. 5, containing fifty acres lived Joseph McLaughlin and his wife and their large family of eleven sons and one daughter about fifty years ago. The late Robt. Reid of Georgetown (brother-in-law of the late T. Eaton) used to speak of the McLaughlin family as the eleven brothers and each one had a sister. The writer of these lines has in his boyhood seen this family wending their way on Sunday afternoons to the church at Norval in groups of two, three, or four walking across the fields and slash, market wagons were a luxury then, but it was a goodly sight for it was a long walk.

"Dear Mr. Bull,

I am very sorry to have been so long in sending you this information. I hope that it is not too late for it to be fo some use to you.

You asked for information about the Ross cottage - (3rd Line, just. below the Town Line)

McLaughlin

A family by the name of FOSTER lived at Fraser's Corners in a house which had been built by GEORGE GRAHAM. About 1878 the father went away, leaving his wife and family. GRANDFATHER LAYCOCK and some of the other neighbours had a bee and built the cottage for this family.

In a few years the mother died and the children moved away to St. Mary's. The cottage was sold for one hundred dollars, and the money was given over to Grandfather Laycock to be given to the children when they came of age. It was sold to a Mr. Graham (Mrs. John Crawford's grandfather) and later sold to Mr. Ross - sold again to pay for Mr. Ross's funeral expenses.

It now belongs to Mr. McLAUGHLIN.

The land on which the cottage was built belonged to Mr. Ben Stewart, and was given for the cottage.

The pictures which I sent were those of the grandparents of Mr. Herridge at Washington. Mb. Herridge was at one time minister at Bro ddytown (Salem, it was then).

Yours truly, (sgnd) Edith Laycock"

Dear Mr. Bull:

I have now received a reply to my inquiries, from Mr. Thos. McLaughlin, who writes from Jackson's Point.

He tells me he is not a native of Peel and knows very little of the wild life of the County or the early settlers. He enclosed a clipping which I am sending on to you in this, though you doubtless have it already. However, he adds the following which may be of interest to you.

> "Re: Peel Natives, afterwards resident in Grey, I enclose a clipping from the Telegram where a man named Smith, aroused General Brock. A son of Smith- by the name Adam - lived at Eugenia at the time I was interested in the river. He is the only one from Peel I can recall. He was farming in a small way at Eugenia though by trade a blacksmith."

The river Mr. McLaughlin refers to is of course the Beaver.

I am getting something of interest on furred animals, trees, natural vegetation etc. though at this distance it is not possible to do justice to the subject. I am sorry if you were feeling that there had been no developments from my short stay in Toronto. I was busy all the time I was there securing and writing out the interviews with the pioneers you asked me to see. I know it was slow work and the street car routes frequently long and roundabout.

With kind regards,

Edith L. Marsh.
